

Missing and Murdered Indigenous People Portal

Home About the Initiative Data Dashboard

Report a Missing Person

Missing or Murdered Indigenous People

For New Mexico and the Surrounding Regions

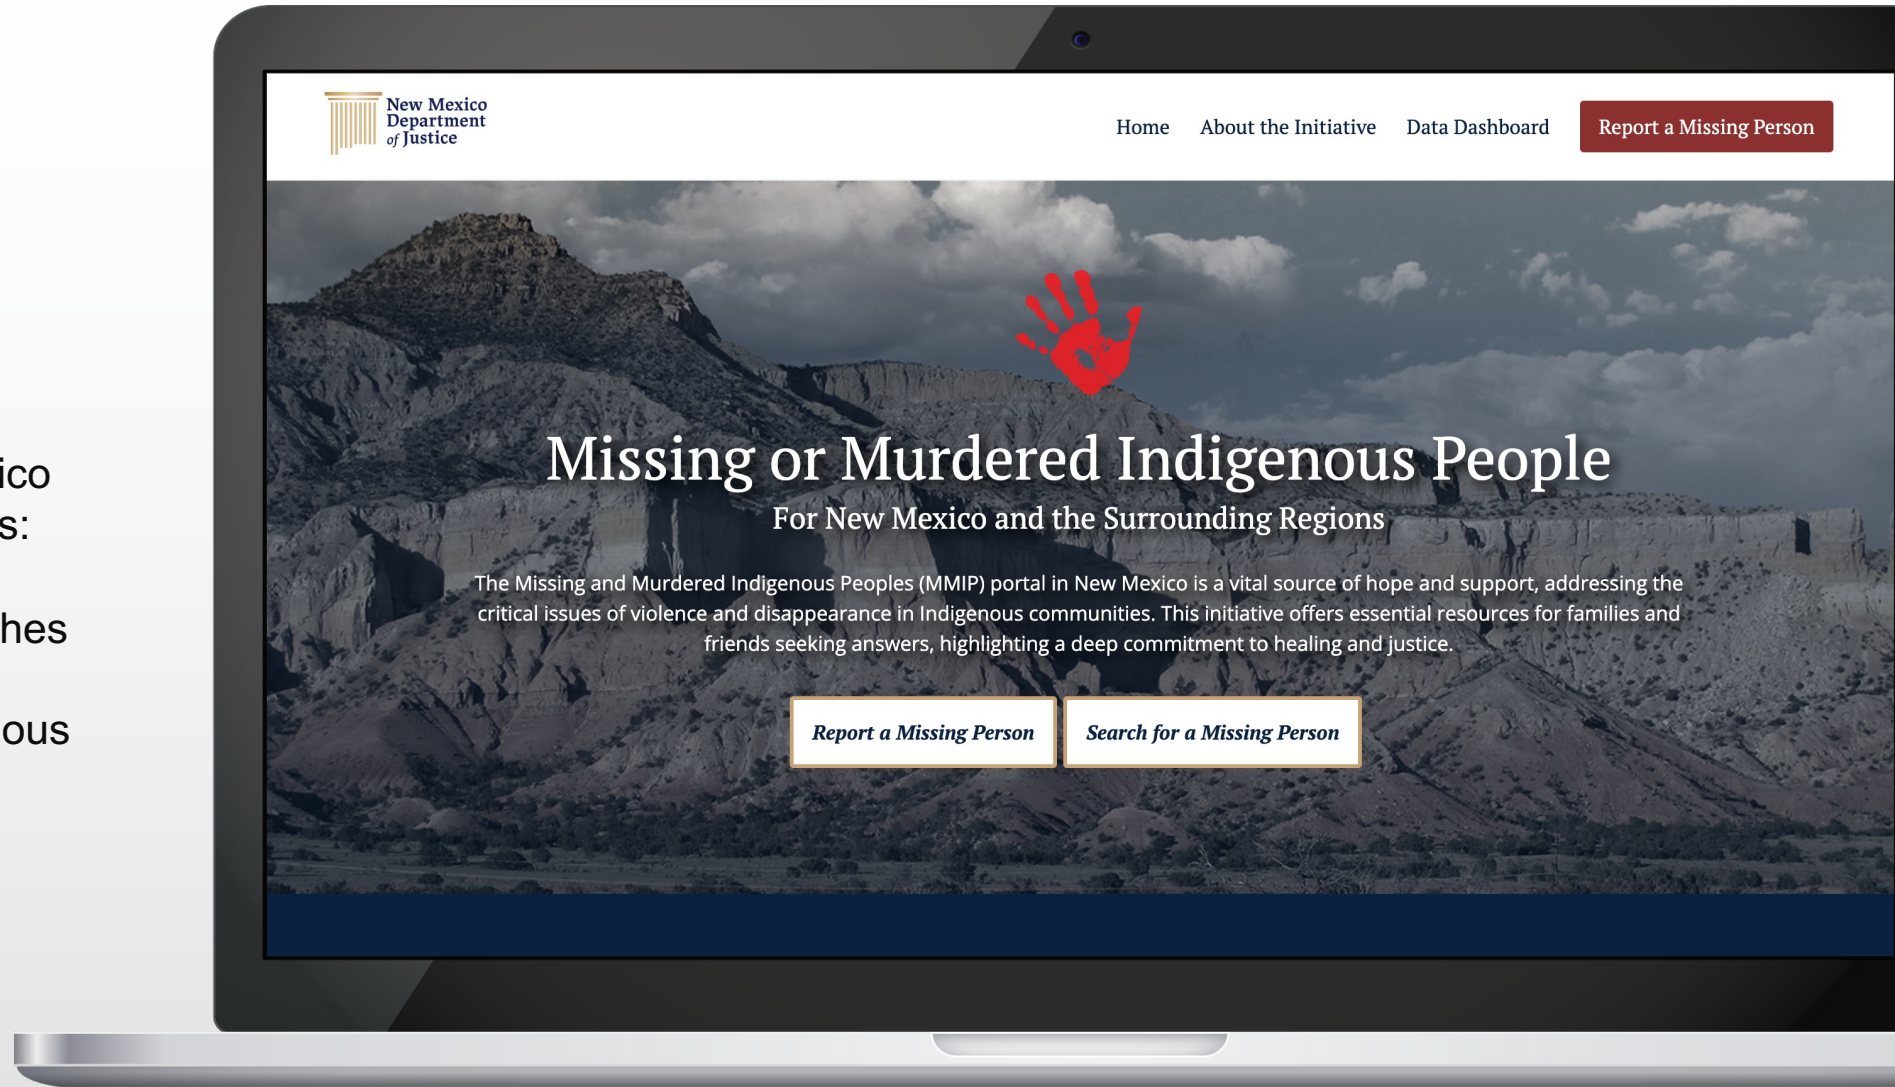

The Missing and Murdered Indigenous Peoples (MMIP) portal in New Mexico is a vital source of hope and support, addressing the critical issues of violence and disappearance in Indigenous communities. This initiative offers essential resources for families and friends seeking answers, highlighting a deep commitment to healing and justice.

Report a Missing Person

Search for a Missing Person

Portal Overview

The MMIP portal in New Mexico focuses on two main functions: enabling reporting of missing persons and facilitating searches for them. It's a key tool for support and justice in Indigenous communities.

Report a Missing Person

The MMIP portal allows reporting of missing Indigenous persons by specifying their last seen location and tribal affiliation, streamlining searches and support efforts.

New Mexico
Department of Justice

HomeAbout the InitiativeData DashboardReport a Missing Person

Missing People

The Missing and Murdered Indigenous Initiative addresses critical issues of violence against Native Americans by providing support, addressing the needs of families and communities.

Report a Missing Person

Enter the information where the missing individual was last seen:

☒ Zip Code☐ City

ZIP code where the individual or went missing:

Enter Zip Code Here

Please select the tribal affiliation of the missing individual:

Please make a selection

Submit

Cancel and Close Window

Search for a Missing or Murdered Indigenous Person

Filing a Police Report

The MMIP process begins with directing users to their local jurisdiction to file a police report, ensuring a formal and crucial first step in the search for missing Indigenous persons.

Home About the Initiative Data DashboardReport a Missing Person

Report a Missing Person in 87107

Where do I start?

Filing a police report with your local law enforcement agency is a critical step when reporting a missing Indigenous person. This action not only initiates an official investigation within your community but also ensures that the case information is entered into national databases. These databases are essential for the broader search efforts, enabling law enforcement agencies across the country to access and share vital information about missing persons cases.

By providing this data, you are significantly enhancing the visibility of the case and the chances of finding the missing person. It creates a crucial link between local incidents and national resources, fostering a unified response to address and combat the crisis of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Peoples. Remember, your report can make a profound difference in mobilizing efforts to bring loved ones home and contribute to the larger fight against this ongoing tragedy.

Your local law enforcement agency is:

Albuquerque Police Department

400 Roma Ave SW
Albuquerque, NM 87102

Phone: (505) 768 - 2020

Visit Website to File a Report

What information should I have when reporting a missing person?

Search for a Missing Person

The MMIP portal offers a search feature for missing persons, using filters and a search box to refine results, enhancing the ability to find specific individuals.

Search for a Missing or Murdered Indigenous Person

Whether you're seeking information, looking to contribute to the awareness of MMIP cases, or hoping to find leads in an ongoing search, your efforts are a valuable part of the collective endeavor to bring attention and resolution to these critical cases.

Filter by Name

Filter by Name...

Filter by Age

Please make a selection

Last Seen After

mm/dd/yyyy

Last Seen Before

mm/dd/yyyy

Viewing all missing persons

Last Name	Given Name	Age	Last Seen
ABEITA	KIRBY LEE	67	10/12/1999	View Details
AGUILAR	MARK	59	9/06/2016	View Details
AMESOLI	CARLOS WAYNE	67	12/11/1996	View Details
ANDERSON	ODIN	22	6/10/2021	View Details
ASHLEY	PETER SPEAN	72	1/18/2021	View Details
BAKER	CALVERT	42	7/16/2022	View Details

View the Missing Person Profile

The MMIP portal enhances efforts to find missing Indigenous persons by allowing users to view comprehensive details, submit crucial tips, and share information widely, facilitating a community-driven approach to addressing disappearances and fostering support and action towards resolution.

The screenshot displays a web interface for the Missing and Murdered Indigenous People (MMIP) Portal. A modal window is open, showing the profile of Kirby Lee Abeita. The profile includes a black and white photo of a man, his name, and his date of disappearance (10/12/1999). Below this, there are sections for 'Characteristics' and 'Lead Officer'. The 'Characteristics' section lists fields for Age, Height, Weight, Eye Color, and Hair Color, with 'Age: 67' filled in. The 'Lead Officer' section identifies Chris Schroeder from the Albuquerque Police Department, including a phone number and email address. At the bottom of the profile section are two buttons: 'Share on Social' and 'Print Poster'. To the right of the profile is a 'Report a Tip' section with a brief instruction, followed by input fields for 'Your Name', 'Phone Number', 'Email', and 'Tip'. A 'Submit a Tip' button is located at the bottom of this section.

ABEITA, KIRBY LEE
Missing from and last seen on 10/12/1999

Characteristics:
Age: 67
Height:
Weight:
Eye Color:
Hair Color:

Lead Officer:
Chris Schroeder, Albuquerque Police Department
505-897-9865 | c.schroeder@apdonline.com

Share on Social Print Poster

Report a Tip
If you have information that could assist in an MMIP case, please share it here.

Your Name

Phone Number

Email

Tip

Submit a Tip

Data Dashboard

The MMIP portal enables users to view data on missing and murdered Indigenous people, providing insights and fostering awareness to address this critical issue effectively.

MMIP Data Dashboard

A data dashboard for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Peoples (MMIP) serves as a powerful tool in the fight against this crisis. By aggregating and visualizing data, the dashboard provides immediate access to crucial information such as case statistics, trends, and geographical hotspots of incidents. This not only enhances transparency and public awareness but also aids in the allocation of resources and the strategizing of intervention efforts. For law enforcement, advocates, and families, the dashboard is an invaluable asset for monitoring progress, identifying patterns, and facilitating collaborative efforts towards prevention, investigation, and support. Ultimately, it empowers communities with the knowledge needed to combat the MMIP epidemic more effectively.

MISSING INDIGENOUS PEOPLE IN NM

201

AVERAGE NUMBER OF DAYS MISSING

2,885

MISSING INDIGENOUS MEN IN NM

118

MISSING INDIGENOUS WOMEN IN NM

83

Breakdown by Gender

Men Women

Breakdown by Age

